THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED GENESIS

THE HISTORY OF CREATION CHAPTERS 1–2	• "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth"; He makes all things in six days. • God creates light (calling the light Day and the darkness Night), the firmament (Heaven), the dry land (Earth) and the Seas, grass, herbs and fruit trees, the sun, moon and stars, the fish and fowl, the living creatures, and man. • God creates man "in his own image… male and female created he them." • God rests on the seventh day. • God blesses the seventh day and sanctifies it. • The LORD God forms man of the dust of the ground, puts him in the garden of Eden, and commands him not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. • The LORD God causes a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, takes one of his ribs, makes a woman, and brings her unto the man.
THE TEMPTATION AND FALL OF MAN CHAPTERS 3–5	• The serpent beguiles the woman; she eats of the fruit of the tree and gives also unto her husband, and he eats. • Sin brings shame, separation from God, and death: they hide from the LORD God, are driven out of the garden, and "unto dust shalt thou return." • God promises that the seed of the woman shall bruise the serpent's head. • Cain slays his brother Abel; God gives Adam another son, Seth. • The line of Adam continues through Seth to Noah, including Enoch, who "walked with God."
THE GREAT FLOOD CHAPTERS 6–9	• God sees that the wickedness of man is great in the earth, and it repents the LORD that He has made man. • "But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD." • God commands Noah to make an ark of gopher wood, and Noah does according to all that God commanded him. • The fountains of the great deep are broken up; the waters prevail upon the earth, and all flesh dies, but Noah and they that are with him in the ark are saved. • After the flood Noah builds an altar unto the LORD. • God makes a covenant with Noah and sets His bow in the cloud: the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

THE TOWER OF BABEL CHAPTERS 10–11	• The nations are divided in the earth from the sons of Noah (Shem, Ham, and Japheth) after the flood. • In the land of Shinar, men build a city and a tower "whose top may reach unto heaven." • At Babel the LORD confounds their language and scatters them abroad upon the face of all the earth. • The line of Shem continues to Terah and his son Abram.
PROMISES TO ABRAM CHAPTERS 12–25	• God calls Abram to get out of his country unto a land that He will show him. • God promises to make of him a great nation, to give the land unto his seed, and that in him shall all families of the earth be blessed. • Abram "believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness." • The LORD makes a covenant with Abram and promises that his seed shall be as the stars. • God changes his name to Abraham and gives him the covenant of circumcision. • The LORD destroys Sodom and Gomorrah, and delivers Lot. • Isaac is born to Abraham and Sarah in their old age, as God had promised. • God tries Abraham, bidding him offer up Isaac; the LORD provides a ram in his stead. • Isaac takes Rebekah to wife; Abraham dies "in a good old age."
JACOB AND ESAU CHAPTERS 25–36	• Isaac and Rebekah have twins: Esau and Jacob. The LORD tells Rebekah, "the elder shall serve the younger." • Esau sells his birthright to Jacob for bread and pottage of lentiles. • With his mother's help, Jacob deceives his father Isaac and receives the blessing. • Fleeing from Esau, Jacob dreams at Bethel of a ladder reaching to heaven, and God renews His promise to him. • In Haran, Jacob serves Laban and marries Leah and Rachel. • At Peniel, Jacob wrestles with a man until the breaking of the day, and his name is changed to Israel. • Jacob is reconciled with Esau, and God confirms the name Israel at Bethel.

JOSEPH SOLD BY HIS BROTHERS CHAPTERS 37–45	• Envied by his brethren, Joseph is sold into Egypt; but "the LORD was with Joseph." • Joseph interprets Pharaoh's dreams: seven years of plenty and seven years of famine. • Pharaoh sets him over all the land of Egypt. • During the famine, his brethren go down into Egypt to buy corn. • Joseph makes himself known unto his brethren and forgives them: "God did send me before you to preserve life."
JACOB'S FAMILY IN EGYPT CHAPTERS 46–49	• Jacob (Israel) goes down into Egypt with all his house, threescore and ten souls, and they dwell in the land of Goshen. • Jacob adopts Joseph's sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, as his own. • Jacob blesses his twelve sons: "All these are the twelve tribes of Israel." • In Egypt, Israel grows and multiplies exceedingly.
AFTER JACOB'S DEATH CHAPTER 50	• Joseph and his brethren bury Jacob in the cave of the field of Machpelah, in the land of Canaan. • After their father's death, Joseph's brethren fear him. • Joseph forgives them and declares, "ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good." • Joseph makes the children of Israel swear to carry up his bones to the land God sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. • Joseph dies, being an hundred and ten years old, and is put in a coffin in Egypt.
